

MEETING SUMMARY

Hunters View Associates, Urban Strategies and Hunters View Tenants Association
Meeting with Hunters View Residents
July 21, 2011 - 5:30pm-7:00pm
Hunters View Community Center
125 West Point Road, San Francisco, CA

Tessie started the meeting at 5:40PM with 7 residents in attendance. She announced that a beloved resident had recently passed away, and many residents could not attend the meeting as they were going to attend the wake service instead. She proposed cancelling the meeting and rescheduling it for one week later. The date will be confirmed shortly.

Kelly Dearman of Urban Strategies made a few announcements before people left. First, she introduced three new Urban Strategies staff. Brad Johnson is a new service connector. Troy Reagan will focus on jobs and vocational training and service connection. Tracy Flowers-Ned is the service connector for children, youth, and families.

Kelly also announced that there was a trip to Six Flags amusement park on 8/10, and encouraged residents to sign up. In addition, there will be another week-long asbestos training session for twelve residents later in August. Urban Strategies will provide transportation to San Ramon; Kelly encouraged residents to sign up. Lastly, the City of Dreams started on Monday at the Community Center, and will be present every Monday and Tuesday from 4PM to 6PM.

Tessie added that the Youth have been doing a great job this summer, and they will report on their activities at next week's meeting. She noted the need for activities to engage children ages nine and under.

The meeting was adjourned and dinner was served.
